SAD NEWS

I just learned our beloved former parishioner, John Duffy, passed away on December 23, 2015. His daughter, Megan, said that he never recovered from his beloved wife's passing, Mary Alice. Blessings to John now united with Mary Alice in Heaven.

Sermon will return next week.
 Pastor taking a few days off.
 Recovering from Christmas fatigue :->)))

CORRECTION TO MY CHRISTMAS SERMON AS PRINTED IN THE BULLETIN

In my Christmas sermon, one line from that sermon as recorded in the bulletin read, "God has an answer to all of Him whatever is important to you." This obviously makes no sense and is an incorrect joining together of two sentences. What I originally wrote concerning God's promises was this:

- God has an answer to all of your problems.
- God will make important to Him whatever is important to you.

This correction is made for historical purposes.

New Year's Resolutions You Have No Chance At Keeping

I will try to figure out why I "really" need 5 Facebook accounts.

I resolve to work with neglected children... my own.

Lose 20 pounds by going to the gym!

I will spend less than five hours a day on the Internet.

I will read the manual... just as soon as I can find it.

Spend less than $1,000.00 for coffee at Starbucks this year.

Stop repeating myself again, and again, and again.

I will stop tagging pictures of myself in pictures even when I'm not in them.

I will think of a password other than "password."

New Year's Resolutions You Can Actually Keep

Read less.

I want to gain weight. Put on at least 30 pounds.

I will start buying lottery tickets at a luckier store.

Stop exercising. Waste of time.

Watch more TV. I've been missing some good stuff.

Gain enough weight to get on The Biggest Loser.

Watch more movie remakes.

Start washing my hands after I use the restroom.

Procrastinate more.

I will do less laundry and use more deodorant.

I will no longer waste my time relieving the past, instead I will spend it worrying about the future.

Stop buying worthless junk on Ebay, because QVC has better specials.

Start being superstitious.

Spend less time at work. Practice for retirement.

Stop bringing lunch from home: I should eat out more.

Take up a new habit: maybe smoking!

Spend more money on stupid stuff
