On Sunday, February 8, 2015, our unbaptised Catechumens will be anointed with the Oil of Catechumens at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. "The anointing with oil symbolizes their need for God's help and strength..."

"CATECHISM QUOTE OF THE WEEK"

When the Church asks publicly and authoritatively in the name of Jesus Christ that a person or object be protected against the power of the Evil One and withdrawn from his dominion, it is called exorcism. Jesus performed exorcisms and from him the Church has received the power and office of exorcizing. 178 In a simple form, exorcism is performed at the celebration of Baptism. Exorcism is directed at the expulsion of demons or to the liberation from demonic possession through the spiritual authority which Jesus entrusted to his Church. 179 (395, 550, 1237)

ANGELS ...AS EXPLAINED BY KIDS

- I only know the names of two angels, Hark and Harold.
- It's not easy to become an angel! First, you die. Then you go to Heaven, and then there's still the flight training to go through. And then you got to agree to wear those angel clothes.
- Angels work for God and watch over kids when God has to go do something else.
- My guardian angel helps me with math, but he's not much good for science.
- Angels don't eat, but they drink milk from Holy Cows!
- Angels talk all the way while they're flying you up to heaven. The main subject is where you went wrong before you got dead.
- When an angel gets mad, he takes a deep breath and counts to ten. And when he lets out his breath again, somewhere there's a tornado.
- Angels have a lot to do and they keep very busy. If you lose a tooth, an angel comes in through your window and leaves money under your pillow. Then when it gets cold, angels go south for the winter.
- Angels live in cloud houses made by God and his Son, who's a very good carpenter. He's made many over the years.
- All angels are girls because they gotta wear dresses and boys didn't go for it.
- Some of the angels are in charge of helping heal sick animals and pets. And if they don't make the animals get better, they help the child get over it.
- What I don't get about angels is why, when someone is in love, they shoot arrows at them.
